

Widget Toolbox

The widget toolbox appears on the left side of the visual designer. A widget is a graphical user interface element, such as a button or a textbox. To create an instance of a widget, drag and drop it onto the canvas area. The widget toolbox is organized into various categories, such as Input Controls, Containers, and Subfile Grids.

